Education at Carthage High School is stimulated through awards.

The students may achieve goals in various ways.

One may receive a trophy, a pin,
a jacket, a scholarship,
a title,
or just a congratulatory comment from his fellow students for proving his aptness.

We, the staff,
have attempted to picture life
at Carthage High School through our achievements.

Teacher Devotion*

Having been the first teacher hired by Superintendent Q.M. Martin, Mrs. Sarah Ross has helped to launch many successful students into our ever-changing world. As a result of her earnest devotion to her students, to Carthage High School and to the teaching profession, the 1965 PINE BURR Staff dedicates this yearbook, with appreciation for all with whom she has worked to instill a love of America through her teaching of American History, for her devotion and interest in young people, for the sponsorship of the Future Teachers Association and for her constant concern for her students whom she has tried to guide and to inspire.

Honor as defined in Webster's Dictionary is the "esteem due or paid to worth." Not every student in CHS receives the honor due him, but those worthy of outstanding honor receive recognition. These student accomplishments bring honor to the school, the teachers and the student. We too, would like to give special recognition to these Honors.

Defeats Plague Bulldogs

As "VICTORY VICTORY" yells faded in the distance so did the Bulldogs of Carthage fade from chances at the upper rims of District standing. Following a beginning against three AAAA schools, the Dogs knuckled down for the sake of school spirit, the new coaching staff, and team dignity.

Opening District play against Pine Tree's Pirates, the Carthage eleven showed that "they were the best losing team in the district," when the score board showed 21-0 at the last gun.

After dogging Palestine to a 16-6 score, the gridiron boys of CHS prepped for Henderson's Lions. This game would tell the story for the Bulldogs, for if they could win over Henderson they might coast home free. These hopes failed, yet the coaching staff and the team, backed by a never-fading student spirit, went on to finish the season. Never did the fans have to feel ashamed of the Dogs. They fought against losing odds to the bitter end of 9 defeats and 1 triumph

New Name Given "B" Team

"Suicide Squad" is the name given by Head Coach Phil Koonce to the members of the Bulldog squad that have been known in the past as the "B" team. This term implied the job they performed for Carthage. They served as the practice group that had to imitate the next Friday's opponent. These boys won the respect and support of the football fans, and, because of their "never-die" spirit, the Quarterback Club presented the team with a banner especially designed for the Suicide Squad.

The team itself could bark loud and clear about one of its most successful seasons. The team won both the Gladewater and Longview tournaments by using real team work and good team spirit. These victories were a "first" for CHS basketball teams.

Lynn Poss and Eddie Towns ranked as All Tournament players. Eddie made the second District Team and Lynn received an Honorable Mention.

The Squad completed the season with a record of 19 wins and 12 losses.

Students of Koonce Junior School have the opportunity to enjoy many sports during the school year. Exciting football games fill the days of fall. Basketball is a favorite sport throughout the winter months, in P.E. classes as well as on the school basketball team. When spring comes, track boys begin practice for the many track meets held at this time of year. The boys and girls at Koonce receive rewarding pleasure and sportsmanship experience through the athletic program.

World Problems Studied in

Mike Heard demonstrates his ability to work a physics problem to Mrs. Mary Hull Carthage offers its students an opportunity to obtain a taste of each of the principal sciences: biology, chemistry, and physics.

Biology II has been offered for the first time this year as a non-credit course. This helps the student explore the biology field to a degree not possible in general biology.

The New Math was introduced in the school last year for the first time. Members of the staff had taken instruction in the course preceding the school term.

Social studies enables students to learn about the past as well as the future.

Mrs. Kathryn Clark points to India on the map to Joe Sanford and Jean Yarborough.

Students Train for Future Careers

Students train for future careers through the study of home economics, agriculture, shop, typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, and distributive education.

Scotty Bates represented the Industrial Arts Club as a national officer. Pat Higginbotham represented the Future Homemakers of America as a state officer, and Joe Beard represented the Future Farmers of America as a state officer.

Miss Bess Lacy instructs Typing II class.

Stage Band plays for CTA Banquet while Key Club members serve teachers.

The merchants and businesses of Carthage are always proud of CHS and always willing to give their full support. Without this help there would be very little incentive to achieve academically, athletically, or publicationally. For unselfishly giving of their time, talents, and money we owe advertisers our pledge to always achieve their highest respect.

This Senior slowly leaves the CHS auditorium for the last time as a student only to return as an ex of Carthage High School.

This senior with her back toward us signifies the end of another year at Carthage High School. Now it is past, but it will live on in our memory and on the pages of the PINE BLRR.

Dear Stacia,
What would I RC be without you. It has been a joy to know you.
But the way Judy Boyd for my donkey! you're too good

Happy.

I really don't know what to say.
Anything I say would be inadequate to express how I feel about you and all the great times we've had together.
In spite of all the fights and tears, it has been fun and a real pleasure to date
you. My "seventeenth summer" is one I'll always remember just because of all the great times I had with you. Although I know you won't believe it, I don't want it to end.
I could never be happy with anyone else.

I love you,
Sandi
